

State of Illinois
Green Governments Coordinating Council

SUSTAINABLE CITIES SYMPOSIUM
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2008

Hosted by the Village of Lisle, Benedictine University, and The Morton Arboretum

- 9:00am Registration, Breakfast, and Exhibits Open
- 10:00am Welcome and Introduction: Benedictine University representative
- 10:05am Opening Address: Mayor Joseph J. Broda, Village of Lisle
- 10:15am Keynote Address: Lt. Governor Pat Quinn
- 10:45am Plenary Session I – “Energy: Efficiency, Conservation, and Alternatives”
- Energy Efficiency: Jonathan Feipel, DCEO & Tim Melloch, ComEd
 - Energy and Real-Time Pricing: Kathryn Eggers, CNT
 - Renewable Energy Certificates: Lesley McCain, Community Energy, Inc.
 - Wind Energy: Gary Ofisher, Keeneyville School District
- 12:00pm Lunch and Exhibits Open
- 1:00pm Working Group Sessions – Please choose one of five options:
- Green Building: Laureen Blissard, USGBC & Jonathan Boyer, Farr Associates
 - Addressing Climate Change Locally: Carolyn Collopy, City of Evanston & Melissa Hulting, U.S. EPA
 - Sustainable Community Design: Doug Farr, Farr Associates & Jessica Thompson, League of Illinois Bicyclists
 - Products from Natural Sources: Christopher Canning, Village of Wilmette & Michael Kelly, BioBlend
 - Reducing Air & Light Pollution: Ashley Collins, Respiratory Health Association of Metropolitan Chicago & Russell Knaack, Village of Homer Glen
- 2:15pm Break and Exhibits Open
- 2:30pm Plenary Session II – “Green Community Initiatives: Environmental, Economic, and Social Sustainability”
- Protecting Farmland: Janice Hill, Kane County & Lenore Beyer-Clow, Openlands
 - Recycling Programs for Local Governments: Kay McKeen, SCARCE
 - Biodiesel from Veggie Oil: Jenna Kollings, Algonquin
 - Managing Stormwater with Rain Gardens: Phil Stuepfert, SEC Group & Steve Vinezeano, Niles
- 3:45pm Closing Comments – Edith Makra, Morton Arboretum
- 4:00pm Adjourn
- Optional Free admission to the Morton Arboretum generously provided for the remainder of the day.