

Public Forum

Sustainable Schools in Illinois: the Significance of School Location and Walkability

Tuesday December 2, 2008, 7:00-8:30pm

DuPage Regional Office of Education's Professional Development Center
1519 S. Grace St., Lombard

- 7:00 p.m. Welcome from Lt. Governor's Office Staff Member & Regional Supt. Darlene Ruscitti
- 7:05 p.m. Presentation by Royce Yeater, Midwest Director of the National Trust for Historic Preservation
- 7:20 p.m. Panelist introductions
- Russell Pietrowiak, Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning
 - Bill Latoza, President of Bauer Latoza Studio
 - Becky McCabe – Asst. Superintendent, DeKalb School District 428
 - (invited) Jane Blew-Healy, Cook County SD 130 School Board Member/Teacher
- 7:40 p.m. Public comment & discussion
- 8:30 p.m. Forum adjourns
-
- 8:30 p.m. Light refreshments offered and conversation until 9:00 p.m.
- ~Attendees will be encouraged to submit a completed comment form~

For more information visit
<http://www.GreenSolutions.il.gov>

or call
Jon Zirkle at 312-814-2094